Lesson Overview

Today, we're going to talk about another parable. A parable is just a fancy word for a story. Jesus used parables to teach people important lessons. In this parable, Jesus wanted to teach the people that we are like sheep. He doesn't mean that we look like sheep but that we act like sheep. Sheep are followers and they depend on a shepherd to lead them to safety. This is true for us, too. We will have people in our lives that want to lead us down the wrong path. This path leads to danger. But, Jesus came to lead us toward safety. He came to die for our sins to save us and he wants to lead us toward the life he has planned for us. So, we need to listen to Jesus, not those friends who are looking for trouble. So, kids, remember that Jesus is our good shepherd who takes care of us. Don't be like a sheep who listens to the wrong voices. Follow and obey Jesus and you'll have a safe and happy life.

He went to the cross to pay for our sin problem so that we could have a relationship with him. And, the Bible says that when we put our trust in Jesus, we become like new people. Instead of having hearts that want to do things our own way, we want to do things God's way. And God's way is always the best way. His way keeps us safe and out of trouble.)

Key Question

What did Jesus do for us?

Memory Verse

John 10:10 "The thief's purpose is to kill and steal, and destroy. My purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life."

Teacher instructions: Choose an activity for your classroom.

OPTION 1: LEAD YOUR SHEEP COTTON BALL RACE

Instructions:

- Before starting the game, give each kid a straw and tape a square at one end of the table to be like a safe pasture.
- Choose two kids to start. Have them stand on opposite sides of the table at one end. When you say, "Go!" have them race to push their cotton ball down the table blowing through their straw to move it. First to get their cotton ball (sheep) into the pasture (into the square) first, wins.
- Continue having two kids go up against each other. If you have time, have the winners of each race compete against each other to see if you can find the ultimate winner!

Supplies needed: Straws (1 per kid), Tape, Cotton Balls

OPTION 2: SHEEP ROUNDUP GAME

Instructions:

- Give each kid a straw, cup and a pile of cotton balls on the table. Have two kids go up against each other at a time. When you say, "Go!" have kids race to get as many cotton balls into their cup, using only their straw to suck up the cotton ball and place it in the cup. Time them for a minute at a time. Kid with the most cotton balls in their cup, wins.
- If you have time, allow the winners to go up against each other to find the ultimate winner.

Supplies needed: Straws (1 per kid), Solo Cups (1 per kid), Cotton balls

Memory Verse

John 10:10 The thief's purpose is to steal and kill and destroy. My purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life.

This parable starts out with Jesus telling the people that shepherds enter the pasture through the gate, but thieves climb over the fence. The sheep will recognize their shepherd's voice and follow them. They won't follow a thief's voice because they won't recognize it. Instead, they will run away. The people listening to this story were confused. So, he told it in a little bit of a different way.

Jesus said that he is the gate for the sheep. Those who go through him will be saved and be able to run around in good pastures. But, the sheep had to watch out for thieves and robbers who wanted to lead them toward danger. They want to hurt the sheep, but his purpose is to help the sheep.

Then he said that he is also the shepherd. In order to keep the sheep safe, Jesus was willing to give up his life for his sheep. He would face any danger to keep his sheep safe. He also says that he has other sheep that aren't in his flock yet, but they will be some day.
